

Volume 17 Issue 1: May 31, 2016

Vicky Hoagland is the newly elected President of Navajo Santa. Marianne Felt, Marcia Thompson and John McHugh will take on additional duties.

Thank you
Marianne Felt

For hosting the Spring Meeting of the elves and board members at her home.

Eric and Kathy Kankainen, Mike and Debbie Dahl, along with elves: Dell & Debbie Phillips and Darrell & Marty Thomas traveled over 1,500 miles last month to view some of our projects spread throughout the northern portion of the Navajo Reservation.

At Piute Mesa, the Navajo recipients of a picnic table, wood-burned a thank you to us on the surface of the table they received. (See picture on page 2.)

Thanks to Roe Allman, Roger Hanson, Hank Stevens and students from the University of Utah and Utah State University for installation of the playgrounds and the water systems.

Thank you to American Express
for helping fund
these projects

Navajo Santa: May 2016

Navajo Santa

Ya'at'eeh Keshmish
Box 58365
SLC, UT 84108

Ahe'hee' la

To

Eric Kankainen for his years of service as President of Navajo Santa. He oversaw a transitional period where the organization began to develop new programs such as community gardens, water storage systems and playground installations.

The school visit on August 12 will be to the Community School: Tiis Nazbas

The back country of Navajo Mountain

Rain harvester and tanks

Piute Mesa picnic table

Testing the swing sets on one of our playgrounds